

Casanova di Neri

TENUTA NUOVA

BRUNELLO DI MONTALCINO DOCG

GIOVANNI NERI TASTING NOTES

Tenuta Nuova 2012 opens on the nose with balsamic notes followed by young red fruit, followed by a pounding tannin on the palate that suggests great aging potential, but which can already be enjoyed now. The finish is of great persistence, silky, which grows with the passing of the minutes. It is strongly recommended to open it a few hours before or to decant it with extreme delicacy.

VINTAGE NOTES

2012 winter was considered mild until February, when snow and frost hit the area quite heavily. Those conditions provided some water storage in the ground for the rest of the growing season and let the grapes ripen slowly and regularly. Spring and summer were quite dry meaning lower yields compared to previous vintages.

The harvest in Tenuta Nuova vineyards began during the third week of September and continued until the end of the month.

Tenuta Nuova 2012 has balsamic and red fruit notes, while in the mouth shows itself with ripen and silky tannins which are supported by a vibrant finish. It is now enjoyable but capable of ageing for many years. This wine is persistent, velvety, and goes on for minutes once opened.
