Casanova di Neri

falstaff 95/100

Funkelndes Rubin mit feinem Granatschimmer. Klare und präzise Nase, zeigt Noten nach Preiselbeere, Brombeere und Kirsche, spannend. Viel saftige Frucht am Gaumen, wieder viel Kirschen, knackig, öffnet sich dann mit griffigem, festem Tannin, geradlinig, sehr langer Nachhall.

JancisRobinson.com 17.5/20

Tasted blind. Mid to deep ruby. Sweet oak perfumes hovering over fresh fruit. Concentrated and well stitched together on the palate and perfectly balanced. Modernist polish of oak notes on the finish. Long while elegant – a balancing act executed with great skill.

International WINE REPORT 94/100

The 2015 Brunello di Montalcino from Casanova di Neri is absolutely stunning in this vintage, and it looks to be one of the finest release ever from the Neri family.

GardiniNotes.com THE WINE SPECTATOR 96+/100

In this (not so) "basic" version, again a magnificent wine that takes advantage of the extraordinary geomorphological and weather conditions. On the nose, small red fruits with a balsamic trace. The mouthfeel is ample, fat, crunchy and properly tannic. Very long persistence.
